Terrorism, not Climate Change, Kills People

All of the Democrats running for president, plus former Democratic presidential candidate Al Gore, want to treat changes in the weather as something to be addressed through new treaties, international agreements and global tax schemes. This campaign has taken precedence over defeating international terrorism.

On the same day as the Paris attacks, former Democratic presidential candidate Al Gore was staging his 24-hour climate change telethon from the foot of the Eiffel Tower to focus attention on this month's United Nations climate summit in Paris. The attacks forced him to pull the plug on the event after five hours.

Al Gore has become a very rich man, a one percenter. He and his partners sold Current TV (Gore personally netted an estimated $100 million of the $500 million sale price) to the terrorist-supporting Middle Eastern oil and gas dictatorship of Qatar.

A member of Apple, Inc.'s board of directors, Gore is today worth as much as $170 million. Even the New York Times has wondered if his climate change campaign is designed to make himself rich, while preserving his lifestyle as an elite member of the one percent.

His telethon carried the official title of "Live Earth: 24 Hours of Reality." The reality of terrorism got in the way of the broadcast, featuring various rock stars and co-sponsored by Arianna Huffington's television channel, HuffPost Live.

Gore and his partners sold Current TV to Qatar so another Al Jazeera spin-off could be piped into American homes. The Al Jazeera America channel was the result, and it is now publishing nonsense like the piece by Rami G. Khouri entitled, "Military responses alone will not defeat ISIL."

But none of the "reasons" for the rise of the Islamic State, in his analysis, consists of the hate-filled passages from the Koran which guide their beliefs and actions.

Instead, we are told, in reason number four, that their motivations include "To live among like-minded people in a society defined by camaraderie, peace, justice and wholesome family life." Reason number six is "To find meaning, direction and purpose to one's personal life, or to escape family or personal problems, loneliness or alienation."

We are supposed to believe this may be why terrorists opened fire on people in Paris. This is why the Islamic State beheads people or burns them alive?

It is easy to forget that the website publishing this material is financed by a Middle Eastern dictatorship that promotes Islamic terrorism. Like the notion of the "existential threat" allegedly posed by climate change, Al Jazeera America constitutes a diversion from what really threatens America, our way of life, and our people. Perhaps that was the intention all along.

As serious as this is, the problem of foreign propaganda in the U.S. media market could get far worse. Television producer Jerry Kenney notes that the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) is planning to remove the barriers to broadcast station ownership by foreigners, a move that would enable American broadcasters to sell out to foreign interests, just like Gore did. The FCC could allow the sale of local broadcast stations and other media properties to the Chinese, Russian and Mexican governments, or to the Muslim Brotherhood.

The public must respond to what the FCC is planning to do by December 21.

JOKE

A police officer pulled over a driver and informed him that, because he was wearing his seat belt, he had just won $1,000 in a safety competition. "What are you going to do with the prize money?" the officer asked. The man responded, "I guess I'll go to driving school and get my license." At that moment, his wife, who was seated next to him, chimed in, "Officer, don't listen to him. He's a smart ass when he's drunk." This woke up the guy in the back seat, who, when he saw the cop, blurted out, "I knew we wouldn't get far in this stolen car." At that moment, there was a knock from the trunk and a voice asked "Are we over the border yet?"

An attitude of gratitude is always obvious. If we are grateful for what God has done for us and given to us, others will see our appreciation of it in everything we do. David gave us a fourfold formula to follow.

"I will thank You Lord, with all my heart." The thanksgiving he describes is total and consumes all of his being - his entire self. The word he used for heart would include his consciousness of God's presence, his memory of God's goodness and his awareness of God's grace. He worshiped God with excitement, enthusiasm and expectation.

"I will tell all of the marvelous things You have done." Marvelous comes from a word that means "extraordinary, not to be surpassed by anyone and wonderful!" He is so overwhelmed by God's blessings on his life that he wants everyone to hear about it.

"I will be filled with joy!" Joy is the natural state of the one who trusts in the Lord. Knowing that "all things work together for our good" should cause His joy to radiate from our hearts into our heads and out through our hands. Everything we do should be done with a smile on our face and gladness in our eyes.

"I will sing praises to Your name, O Most High." Notice that there is only one letter different between the word "sin" and "sing" - the letter "g" - that stands for God. When we give up sin for the Savior, God gives us a new song to sing. It is a song about the Savior who loves us, gave Himself for us, is present in us and cares for us.

Ground Beef Chili

INGREDIENTS

- 3 pound - ground beef (I have made this with 2 lbs and it was enough for my family)
- 1 large - onion, chopped
- 1 medium - green bell pepper, chopped
- 2 celery ribs, chopped 2 can - kidney beans, rinsed and drained (16 oz)
- 1 can - tomato puree (29 oz)
- 1 jar salsa (16 oz) 1 can - beef broth (10.5 oz)
- 1 cup - (to 2 cups) water
- 2 tablespoon - Worcestershire sauce 1/4 cup - chili powder
- 1 tablespoon - dried basil 2 teaspoon - ground cumin
- 2 teaspoon - steak sauce (A1 or Heinz 57)
- 1 teaspoon - garlic powder
- 1 teaspoon - salt
- 1 teaspoon - ground black pepper
- 1 1/2 teaspoon - browning sauce, optional (I never put this in)

Top with additional chopped onion, shredded sharp cheddar cheese, sour cream, and oyster crackers if you'd like! Prep time is 45 min, serves 16.

DIRECTIONS:

1 In large pot (I always use my Dutch oven) brown ground beef with onion, green bell pepper and celery. Drain, Stir in all other ingredients, bring up to a boil, and then down to a simmer for 30 minutes, uncovered, or until desired thickness.
